

Dear Lanny and/or Ernesto:

My co-authors and I have revised the manuscript and are re-submitting it for your consideration. The reviews were really are constructive and offered substantive advise. We addressed all concerns by reviewers, either in the text or in the appendix. The letter to reviewers explains how we have done it.

We think that the review process greatly improved the manuscript.

Thanks so much for considering our manuscript!

The revised manuscript has 8650 words.
